

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I would like to invite you to the conference THE TRANSFORMATION OF TAX SYSTEMS IN THE CEE AND BRICS COUNTRIES – 25 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE AND FUTURE CHALLENGES which is organized by the Centre of Tax Documentation and Studies of the University of Lodz (Poland) and Foundation Centre of Tax Documentation and Studies.

The aim of the conference is to identify and evaluate general and specific legal and tax policy aspects of the transformation of tax systems in the Central and Eastern European Countries (CEE) and BRICS Countries (Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa) in the last 25 years in different areas of tax law: substantive, procedural and international tax law. We will also discuss the future challenges for the tax law provisions in these countries.

The conference is addressed to academics, doctoral candidates, students, tax practitioners (tax lawyers, tax advisors, tax officials, judges), as well as tax legislators and tax policy makers. We especially invite officials involved in drafting and enacting tax legislation.

Registration fee is PLN 1200 (EUR 300 in case of transfers from outside Poland). The fee will not be reimbursed in case you cancel your registration. The fee includes: participation in the academic program, meals and refreshments described in the agenda. The fee does not include hotel accommodation and transfers to conference events. Participants are requested to make their own hotel reservations (for details see practical information).

If you are interested in participating please send your registration form via email to Dr. Ziemowit Kukulski (ziemekk@hotmail.com). Registrations will be dealt with on first come first served basis. Registration deadline is: 30 September 2015.

For further and updated information please refer to the conference official website (www.cdsp.uni.lodz.pl/taxtransformation) or contact Dr. Ziemowit Kukulski.

I am looking forward to welcoming you to Lodz.

Sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Włodzimierz Nykiel
Rector, University of Lodz
